February 2018

JETRO, or the Japan External Trade Organization, is a government-related organization that works to promote mutual trade and investment between Japan and the rest of the world.

Originally established to promote Japanese exports abroad, JETRO's core focus in the 21st century has shifted toward promoting foreign direct investment into Japan and helping small to medium size Japanese firms maximize their global export potential.

Establishment: 1958

Offices: 45 regional offices in Japan,
74 overseas offices (54 countries)

Total Staff Strength: Approx. 1,800

(as of November 2017)
